Office of the Center for Emergency Situations and Disaster Risk Reduction

The modern and multifunctional office of the Center is located in the city of Almaty, the Republic of Kazakhstan, the total area is 1200 m².
Advantages of office location:

- Location in the center of Almaty;
- Access to the metro station "Baikonur;"
- Convenient access by car to the Office and the parking area;
- Proximity to the hotel complexes and much more.

Office of the Center consists of:

- Conference hall;
- Crisis center;
- Training base;
- Office rooms and classrooms;
- Information and telecommunication systems, security systems.
Conference hall

To host international forums, conferences, trainings, seminars, meetings, etc. is equipped conference-hall for 90 seats, has sound reinforcement and conference system for 40 workstation with the possibility of simultaneous translation into 6 languages, video conferencing is provided with the possibility of simultaneous connection of 25 subscribers.

Crisis Center

The Crisis Center is equipped for the work of the staff of the operational groups, international and non-governmental organizations.
The Crisis Center is equipped with the means of communication, 5 internal telephone extensions with the connection of 2 city lines and access to intercity, international satellite, connectivity visualization, information, video conferencing, and audio systems. It is also equipped with office equipment, software for mapping and modeling of natural and man-made emergencies. To obtain field information from the site of emergencies there is satellite television with reception of broadcasted state channels both the Republic of Kazakhstan and the Kyrgyz Republic.

Training base

For carrying out separate classes in groups, seminars, trainings, the Center has spacious modern classes.

All training classes are equipped with information visualization systems and are provided with professional literature and teaching aids.
Offices and Classrooms

For the meeting, the Center has rooms for negotiations and conducting meetings.
For convenience of the participants of the seminars, trainings, conferences and other events in the office of the Center there is a wardrobe, space for organizing coffee breaks, lunches, and official meetings.
Information and Telecommunication systems, security system.

The Center has the latest:
- informatization and communication systems, visualization means, 12 monoblock, a computer server and control computer, multifunctional black and white and color printing devices, mini PBX for 16 subscribers with the connectivity to 2 city phone lines of communication and access to intercity and international communication.
- building security systems, video surveillance, security and fire alarm, electronic locks, basic fire safety.
- on the territory of the Center a high-speed Internet connection distributed by Wi-Fi, with the main and backup modules.
- physical security provided by the operational groups "Kuzet".

In all the premises of the Center there is comfortable office furniture, air conditioning systems, communication facilities and office equipment, that creates favorable conditions for the implementation of a full-scale work activities of the staff of the Center, as well as guests such as participants of conferences, seminars, field exercises, and training.

The work on building the technical capacity of the Center is continuing.

Learn more about the Center on web-site cesdrr.org

Contact details:
73 Amangeldy st.
Almaty, Republic of Kazakhstan 050022
Phone: +7-727-220-73-31, 220-73-32
Fax: +7-727-220-73-31, 220-73-32 (ext. 102)
E-mail: cesdrr@cesdrr.org