

BILATERAL MEETING PROTOCOL

26 May 2022

Denpasar, Indonesia

The International Civil Defense Organization, represented by the Secretary-General of ICDO Mrs. Njoupouo YAP Mariatou, and the Center for Emergency Situations and Disaster Risk Reduction, represented by the Center's Deputy Director Mr. Serik Aubakirov, within the frame of the 7th Session Of the Global Platform for DRR conducted the meeting, considering global and regional perspective of the Sendai Framework implementation, taking into account experience and efficiency of mutual work and implemented projects, have agreed as follows:

1. Enhance the cooperation in the field of disaster resilience relating to training and education of emergency services of Central Asian countries;
2. Strengthen potential for the use of information and communication technologies to prevent and eliminate disasters;
3. Establish an exchange of experience and mutual information about the introduction of advanced innovative technologies in this field, including automation and digitalization of disaster early warning systems.

The Secretary-General of ICDO
Mrs. Njoupouo YAP Mariatou

Center's Deputy Director
Serik Aubakirov